

Troopers Investigating Armed Robbery-Dover

Dover- The Delaware State Police are investigating an armed robbery that took place at a Dollar General store last evening.

The incident occurred on October 6, 2019 at approximately 7:40 p.m., when Troopers responded to the Dollar General store located at 250 Gateway South Boulevard, Dover, for a report of a robbery. Upon arrival, Troopers met with a female employee who advised that a male suspect approached the counter, removed a knife from his sweatshirt, pointed it at her and demanded money. The employee opened the register when the suspect grabbed an undisclosed amount of cash, threatened to kill the employee and then fled the scene. The employee was not injured as a result of this incident.

The suspect was described as a white male, approximately 6'00" tall, wearing a hooded sweatshirt, dark colored pants and armed with a knife. The suspect fled the area on foot towards the Food Lion.

If anyone has any information in reference to this incident they are asked to contact Troop 3, Criminal Investigations Unit, Detective Buzzuro at 302-697-4454.
